ETHEL CLAYTON AT THE BUTLER TODAY

Have you ever climbed a ladder that rested in soft earth or on an unsteady foundation and felt it sway under you as you climbed upward? This same illustration can be applied to the ladder of life. Before people start climbing upward to happiness or prosperity or any other desirable state they should first be certain that the ladder rests on a firm foundation, which will not give way and cause it to fall when they have nearly reached the top. This, briefly, is the theme of Ethel Clayton's new Paramount Artercraft starring vehicle, "The Ladder of Life," which will be shown at the Butler today. In this production Miss Clayton is seen as Edith Parrish, a young illustrator, who seeks to prevent Peter Gordon from climbing a ladder of happiness which is founded on the deceit and lies of the woman he has married. But the husband believes she is innocent, and suspects instead the girl who is trying to help him. The story is filled with interest and moral force, and culminates in a delightful and happy romance. Added to the program will be a Ford Educational Weekly, and a Mutt & Jeff comedy.

Tomorrow, Lieutenant Omer Locklear in "The Skywayman," the picture in which this daring aviator lost his life.

Coming Louise Glaum in "The Leopard Woman."

GIRL DIES FROM KICK OF HORSE

Carolina, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Minor, passed away at the family home near Placerville Wednesday night, says the Humboldt Star.

The little girl was kicked by her pony about two weeks ago, a large gash being inflicted over her right eye. There was no apprehension that the accident would result fatally until a few days ago when infection set in, followed by lockjaw, and death brought an end to her suffering Friday night.

Mrs. Schmal before her marriage was Mrs. Hannah Rogers of Manhattan and later of Tonopah. She enjoys a wide acquaintanceship in this section and is popular among her many friends.

WILL EXTEND CONTRACT

The auditor of the state highway commission met with the board of county commissioners last Monday to arrange for a continuation of the present contract.

They have authorized the building of an additional two miles of road to extend from the south end of the present contract to Dutch Creek—Walker Lake Bulletin.

GOLD DREDGER DOES MUCH WORK

Some two months ago the big gold dredger in Gold Canyon was started up and a lot of people saw the machine in motion. It is interesting to visit the scene of operations after two months, says the Carson Appeal.

The great earth eater has wormed its way several hundred yards up the canyon, leaving a pile of boulders nearly the size of Lone Mountain. From appearances the monster will be wallowing up Gold Canyon in a few weeks, when it will also be transferred into a vast assortment of rocks and boulders.

The boat, which at the launching was a neat and trim craft, practically spotless, is now one mass of mud and slush, while the decks are awash with the yellow waters in the turbulent pond. Needless to state, no visitors are welcome as they are simply in the way.

From what can be learned entire satisfaction is expressed concerning the gold returns, and as there is no let-up in the 24 hours the snout of the groundhog keeps on ripping up territory. Within a few months one will have to have a map to distinguish the old landmarks in Gold Canyon.

RAISING FUNDS TO AID BLINDED MAN

Lawrence C. Camp is circulating a subscription list for the purpose of raising funds to send Leon Barkhausen to the Lane hospital, San Francisco, where he will have the advantages of the free clinics of the Stanford university. Barkhausen lost his sight last March and has had one operation performed on his eyes at Reno some time ago, but further operations are necessary to restore his vision.

There seems to be a good chance to do this if he is placed where he can have the advantages offered by the university. Anyone whom Mr. Camp is unable to see can leave word or contribution at the Mizpah hotel.

SILVER PICK HAS RICH FIND

The Silver Pick has exposed in the wall of an old stope in the Red Top a four to five-foot face of ore from which the lowest assay return has been $65, according to Mat Murphy, superintendent, who says all work being done by the company is now in the Red Top, as operations in the Mohawk were discontinued when the Development mill closed for the winter, depriving the Silver Pick of facilities for treating low-grade ore.

This ore, which may prove to be important, was found as the result of a cave-in following a flood that broke down the hanging wall of an old stope of the Consolidated. The drift to the stope from the Red Top shaft was found to be badly caved and a new drift was driven 90 feet in the footwall and a raise was then extended into the stope.

Work that should be completed soon is now being done to determine the size of the orashoot—Goldfield Tribune.
